

The President of the United States of America

Awards this

Presidential Medal of Freedom

to

Oscar Elias Biscet

Oscar Elias Biscet has dedicated his life to advancing human rights and democracy in Cuba. A medical doctor, he has been persecuted for his peaceful calls for a free Cuba. Despite being imprisoned for his beliefs, he remains a powerful advocate for a Cuba in which the rights of all people are respected. Freedom-loving people everywhere are his brothers and sisters, and his sacrifice benefits all mankind. The United States stands with Oscar Elias Biscet in his heroic struggle against tyranny, salutes him for his courage, and honors him for his devotion to freedom and human rights.

*The White House
Washington, D. C.,
November 5, 2007*

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "GWB", written in a cursive style.